Newly Admitted Members of the Bar

In 1941 and 1942 the Colorado Supreme Court adopted two rules, giving servicemen special benefits in admission to the bar. One of these rules provides that any applicant who has taken a bar examination in December, 1940, or subsequent thereto may, upon honorable discharge from service, have two points added to his grade if such will bring his grade to the passing grade of 75. The other rule provides that a graduate from an approved law school may be admitted to the bar without examination if he has served in the armed forces. Under these two rules the following persons have been admitted to the Colorado bar in the years indicated:
